

How do you sing songs about peace in different languages?

Let's sing for Peace

Key vocabulary

South Africa, Nelson Mandela, peace, apartheid, djembe, chime bars, piano, forte, mezzo (dynamics), call and response, timbre, texture, structure, tempo, pitch, ensemble, duration, ostinato, unison,

Must—know knowledge

- Nelson Mandela was important for World peace and people in South Africa sang to celebrate his release from prison. People sing about peace all around the world in lots of different languages.
- Piano means quiet and forte means loud.
- Ostinato are patterns that repeat
- Many African songs use call and response

pmf

Must—Skills

- Sing with accuracy and expression using piano and forte
- Rehearse and perform songs about peace in different languages with actions (see list)
- Play djembes and chime bars to accompany a song— playing in time with others.

Key pieces of Music

Siyahamba-African Folk song

Zimbole-African Folk Song

Peace like a river – African-American Spiritual

Kye Kye Kule-Trad Ghanaian song

Light a Candle for peace-Shelley Murley (Year 1 song)